−6.1 points vs August (59.6)

58 industry median for cafés

90 days to close the 4.5-point gap on the plan inside

An independent analysis of online reputation, social performance and competitive position — with a prioritised, revenue-ranked action plan.

The month in one read

Your reputation score fell 6.1 points to 53.5/100, 4.5 points below the 58 industry median. Right now 18 unanswered negative reviews are the single biggest drag on your 4.25★ rating and local visibility. The clearest revenue lever this quarter is fixing the 7 critical website × GBP mismatches — most take under an hour.

GOOGLE RATING	REVIEW RESPONSE	AVG ENGAGEMENT	POSTING CADENCE
4.25★	21%	2.4%	3.2/wk
▼ 0.01 vs Aug	▼ Median is 38%	▼ Median is 4.5%	Target 5 / week

DO THESE TWO THINGS FIRST

1 Respond to all 18 unanswered negative reviews

Owner responses lift conversion and signal active management. Templates for your most common complaint themes are on page 17.

2 Double your Reels output to 2 per week

Reels earn 4.8% engagement for you — 3.0× your static posts, yet make up only 22% of what you publish.

01 Google Reviews Health

You hold a 4.25★ rating across 617 reviews, but a 21% response rate (median 38%) leaves 18 negative reviews unanswered in public — mostly about wait time and coffee quality. The words customers use most in praise are “great”, “lovely” and “friendly”. Replying to every negative and fixing the process behind the top complaint is the fastest way to protect and lift that rating.

THREE AI FIXES, IN ORDER

1. Fix Sunday hours and add "dog-friendly" and "vegan" on Google — THIS WEEK
   Three of four AI engines say you're closed on Sundays, and none will recommend you for dogs or vegan breakfast because your Google profile doesn't say so. Both are 10-minute fixes on the Website × GBP page.

2. Put your name on the brewing guides AI already quotes — THIS MONTH
   Your pour-over, cold-brew and milk guides feed AI answers seen by about 13,400 searches a month, yet none of them says "Saltbush". Add "From the baristas at Saltbush Coffee House, Leederville" and a visit-us link.

3. Turn your coffee reputation into brunch and beans answers — NEXT 60 DAYS
   AI already names you first for coffee. Publish the brunch menu as text, not a photo, and add a "buy our beans" page so AI has something to recommend for brunch and bean questions.

How we measured, Sep 2026: 4 questions about Saltbush and 8 local questions, each asked twice to ChatGPT, Gemini, Claude and Google, searching from Perth. Citation counts: Google AI Overviews, Australia, Oct 2025 – Sep 2026.
